

George Mason High School
Parent Teacher Student Association (PTSA)
Membership Form
2018 – 19

The PTSA serves as a liaison between the parents, teachers, and students through sharing important information, giving grants of money and providing volunteer support (and food). The PTSA also has an educational component and sponsors SAT prep courses, as well as meetings on topics such as the college process, alternatives to a 4-year college, drug abuse and awareness and the International dinner.

PTSA's All Night Grad Celebration (ANGC)

Mason's All-Night Graduation Celebration (ANGC) is an alternative to typical "grad night" parties that often included alcohol, drugs, driving between multiple locations, and other unsafe risky behaviors. It is a six-hour party held at George Mason High School where seniors can spend one last night together filled with music, food, prizes, games, and entertainment before they go their separate ways.
